

MISSION STATEMENT COPPENRATH VERLAG

„We put a smile on children's and grown-up's faces and leave footprints in their hearts.“

- We are an independent, long-term oriented family business with strong employees.
- We are known as an innovative publishing house passionately designing creative products.
- We stand for high quality products, special designs and multifaceted theme worlds.
- We are dedicated to analogue and haptic products and at the same time take advantage of digital opportunities.
- We put our customers at the heart of our business and provide them with unique experiences.
- We build long-term and trusting relationships with our suppliers and business partners.
- We are committed to sustainability and a careful handling of resources.

